

On May 7-8, 2007, Norman L. Greene attended a conference of Lawyers for Civil Justice in Washington, D.C. Lawyers for Civil Justice is a national coalition of defense trial lawyer organizations and corporations which seeks to accomplish civil justice reform through anticipating, tracking and addressing proposals which affect the civil justice system and participating in the legislative process.

LCJ MISSION STATEMENT

Lawyers for Civil Justice (LCJ) is a national coalition of defense trial lawyer organizations and corporations which seeks to restore and maintain balance in the civil justice system for the benefit of the public.

The purpose of LCJ is to accomplish civil justice reform through:

- Coalitions among defense trial lawyer associations and corporate interest;
- Participation in the legislative process in a way that persuasively presents the defense perspective; and
- Anticipating, tracking and addressing proposals which affect the civil justice system.

